ANOTHER VETERAN CASE.

The Shabby Treatment of Col. F. G. Mather by the G. O. P.

The veteran soldiers of the State have reason to feel especially indignant at the way the Republican party has treated a distinguished and honored veteran of the late war, Col. F. G. Mather.

Col. Mather served through the late war with conspicuous gallantry. For over 20 years, under a Democratic administration, he was superintendent of the Cold Springs Hatchery, a duty for which he was especially qualified by training and long experience.

When the Republicans seized the fish and game commission last winter and by consolidating it with the forestry commission greatly increased the expense to the taxpayers and made it for the first time a part of a political machine, they discharged Col. Mather from his position as superintendent.

They next appointed A. N. Cheney, of Otisville, a Platt politician without the slightest experience in the breeding of fish, to the position of fish culturist. This was so glaring a violation of the civil service laws that the State commission was compelled to interfere and order a competitive examination. Cheney and Col. Mather took the examination, and Col. Mather's won on any fair test the higher examination standing. By some hocus-pocus about "general competency" (meaning competency to carry out orders) enough percentage was added to the standing of Cheney to put him one-third of a percent above Col. Mather, and he was at once appointed.

But the appointment was of course clearly illegal, since, under the military preference law, the veteran, Col. Mather, must have the preference. Cheney, holding the place illegally, can draw no pay, but is kept in in hopes that after election some absurd ruling can be made to give him his salary. The place pays $3,500 a year.

Col. Mather is a familiar figure at Grand Army encampments, and his is a conspicuous instance of Republican "love" for the old soldier.

AN IDEAL EMPLOYER.

What a Representative Trade Journal Says of John B. Judson.

The Indianapolis Typographical Journal, a representative non-political trade paper, presents an excellent cut of John B. Judson, Democratic candidate for Comptroller, with the following appreciative and well-deserved sketch:

"While not in politics, the Journal takes pleasure in presenting to its readers a sketch of Mr. John B. Judson, a candidate for Comptroller of New York State. Mr. Judson is a practical printer, having been engaged at the business as an employer since 1877, at which time he became the proprietor of a job office in Gloversville, N. Y., now noted for its fine color printing and embossing for glove manufacturers. He is thoroughly in sympathy with union principles, and encouraged his men in joining No. 368, the charter of which covering Fulton county, was issued about a year ago.

"Mr. Judson was born at Kingsbury, N. Y. (now Gloversville) August 29, 1861, and was educated at Kingsborough Academy and Williston (Mass.) Seminary. His first entrance into politics was in 1888, when elected delegate to the State convention, in which capacity he served again in 1892. He acted as secretary of the Fulton county committee from 1890 to 1894, and is the present chairman of that body. In 1893 and 1899 he represented the Twenty-second Congressional District; was appointed a member of the executive committee in 1893 and unanimously elected secretary of the State central committee in 1894. Mr. Judson is a director of the Cayuta Electric Railroad and of the Gloversville and Broadbald Railroad, and a member of the Gloversville Business Men's Association.

"Among the printers of Gloversville Mr. Judson is considered the best of employers, being at all times considerate of and kind to his employees. The tourists all know him as a friend, and those who ask his assistance always receive the help they need."

PROSPERITY'S RETURN.

Some Sickeners for the Howlers of Calamity.

The business outlook continues to improve slowly but headily, modestly but determinedly. The workshops in some instances are very busy night and day, and everywhere the wage-earner and wage-payer are as happy as clams at high tide.

This leads us to congratulate the people upon the past three years of national Democratic control. Faced at the outset with a panic not of party origin nor confined to its own territorial boundaries, it has met it with magnificent courage and stemmed the current of adversity. It has been a glorious fight for existence, and the victory has been won by Democratic leadership.

Great is Allah! Great is the Democratic party, the party of the struggling masses, the guardian of honest ambition, the promoter of great Federal enterprise! Keep your eye on it, and watch it grow in popular strength as the times grow better and the smiles of contented labor break forth into merry laughter. Politics is making fast, and one year from to-day we shall all be on the threshold of another great Democratic victory, with drama, a playing and laughter a-tying. Put this in your old shawl and smoke it. —New Haven Register.

That Narcotic Instruction Law.

Mr. Charles L. Skinner, superintendent of public instruction, has begun a campaign for the repeal of that absurd law requiring that pupils in the public schools shall be taught, for at least ten weeks in every school year, the effect of alcohol and narcotics on the human body. Here's more power to his elbow. The instruction which is implied by the law is all right. The method of the instruction, and the presumed purpose of the law, are all wrong.—Buffalo Express (Rep.).

Let voters bear in mind that this vicious and useless law, which entails upon taxpayers an immediate expenditure of half a million of dollars for text-books, to benefit a firm of publishers, was enacted by a Republican legislature and signed by a Republican Governor in defiance of the almost unanimous protest of educators and friends of education in the State.

Speeding to the Exposition.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—The fastest time ever made between north and south by railroad was inaugurated yesterday. The limited train leaving Chicago yesterday afternoon at 5:10 over the Chicago and Eastern Illinois road had the honor of initiating the record breaking. It will reach Atlanta, Ga., this afternoon at 4 o'clock, making the running time twenty-two hours and fifty-eight minutes. This, according to General Agent Stone, will be the regular daily standard hereafter.

The Katakadin Was Too Slow.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—General Hyde, of the Bath Iron works, announces that the Katakadin failed to make the seventeen knots required by contract. The navy department is endeavoring to find some means by which rejection of the boat can be avoided. The official speed is 16.13 knots. The Katakadin is the first vessel of the new navy failing to reach contract requirements so far as speed is concerned.

A DOCTOR

AND DISEASE.

THE PLAIN TRUTH, BY A WELL KNOWN PHYSICIAN, ABOUT THE KIDNEYS AND THE BLOOD.

How to Cure Blood Diseases by Curing the Kidneys—The Action on the Blood of Asparagus and Sparagus Kidney Pills.

Every physician knows that our kidneys are natural filters. Our kidneys filter our blood.

Blood diseases are caused by badly filtered blood.

When the kidneys are well they keep the body well by keeping the blood pure. When they are ill, they filter the blood badly and make us ill.

The sick kidney can be made well with Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills, and this is what Dr. John Dobson says about it:

OFFICE OF DOCTOR JOHN DOBSON, 85-87 Dearborn St., CHICAGO, July 20, 1895.

Hobb's Medicine Co.

Gentlemen—Being convinced of the truth, so persistently iterated by you, that upon the kidneys depend almost entirely the purity of the blood, and that therefore all blood diseases could be cured by treating the kidneys, I decided to make a fair trial of Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills in my practice.

Previous to this I had many cases which I had found I could only temporarily relieve with ordinary drugs, and I hoped, with the aid of the special preparation of Asparagus Officialis (from which, as you have explained to me, your pills are made) to obtain much better results.

I was not disappointed.

From the very beginning the results I got were to me, as a physician, astonishing.

In rheumatism and gout, those diseases which we are often unable to do more than relieve—sometimes not that—Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills almost invariably effected a cure.

Kidney troubles, diabetes, pain in the back, sleeplessness and all that train of disorders, were relieved in a few doses, and sooner or later cured.

In anemia, chlorosis, general depression, nervous headache, hysteria, neuralgia, etc., the effects were perhaps even more marvelous, the patient seeming to wake up into new life, with new energy, new ambition, new blood and new complexion.

I have now used Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills for some time, and have decided to use them constantly. I know of no preparation which has such immediate and lasting curative power over all diseases caused by impure or vitiated blood.

Wishing you every success, and that your remedy may become as widely known as it should, I remain Sincerely Yours,

JOHN DOBSON, M. D.

Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills owe their curative power to the healing and the tonic properties of Asparagus on the kidneys. It is a real tonic and strengthener. It builds up the kidney, and through them cleanses and revitalizes the blood. A few doses will relieve. A few boxes will cure.

Dr. Hobb's Sparagus Kidney Pills are for sale at all druggists, price 50 cents per box, or will be sent to any address postpaid, on receipt of price.

An interesting pamphlet on the subject will be mailed free to any address. Hobb's Medicine Co., Chicago or San Francisco.

SEPT. EASTON ACCUSED OF LEAVING POLITICAL ASSESSMENTS.

WAS THE LAW VIOLATED?

A Tell-Tale Circular Compared With the Law on the Subject. A Good Case for Investigation It Would Appear.

Special Albany Letter.

The scandals connected with the Capitol, which in both its maintenance and its construction department is now run as an annex to the local Platt-Barnes machine and for the purpose solely of carrying its caucuses, continue in increasing numbers. At the very time that the Governor is busy investigating the whole-sale dismissals of veterans by Superintendent Frederick Easton in defiance of one law, in order to give their places to holders of the local Platt faction and handy men about the caucuses, comes a story of political assessments levied by the superintendent, Easton, in apparent defiance of another.

Superintendent Easton is president of the Capital City Club. This is a Republican club, manipulated chiefly in the factious interests of the local Platt lieutenant, William Barnes, Jr. It is stated that directly after Easton took office gentle hints were dropped that it would be a good thing for employees in his department to join the club. As a result of these discreet hints, large numbers of the employees, including some Democrats and many Republicans who have no residence in Albany and not the slightest interest in its local politics except the bread-and-butter interest of keeping their jobs, did join the club, and paid $2 a head for the privilege of enrollment therein and the supposed immunity from removal. When the sweeping removals of May 17 were made, however, many of the $2-a-head contributors were removed—especially those from elsewhere in the State, as it was found that all the places would be needed by local talent to insure the triumph of the Barnes faction at the local caucuses.

By August, pretty nearly every employee in Easton's department was a Capital City Club member. Then came the much-advertised trip to Saratoga to be the candidacy of John Palmer. His bona fide bona signs of fatigue, and the veterans were not enthusiastic, so orders came from Mr. Platt that extra men must be had for Palmer at any cost.

THE TELL-TALE CIRCULAR. Accordingly, Supt. Easton caused to be posted in the department of the Capitol the following tell-tale circular, which remained posted there until Oct. 15, when, in the presence of witnesses, it was torn down.

Headquarters of Capital City Club, Albany, N. Y., August 23, '95.

Dear Sir:—At a meeting of this club, held Tuesday, August 20, 1895, it was decided that we would attend, in a body, the Republican convention to be held in Saratoga, September 17, 1895, in honor of our candidate, Secretary of State John Palmer. As General Palmer is one of our most prominent citizens I think it is the duty of every good Republican in this county to honor him with their presence at the convention. The club would like to turn out as large a number as possible, and your presence on this occasion is very much desired. The members and invited guests will report to the club headquarters, No. 11 State street, wearing dark clothes, silk hat and white gloves, cane and badge will be furnished at headquarters. If you intend going with the club on this trip please send enclosed postal card and forward to the secretary at as early a date possible.

Very respectfully yours,
FREDERICK EASTON,
President.

Assessment, $1.00.

It is further alleged that on the same day Timekeeper Hastings handed to each employee, in an envelope addressed to him, the same circular, and that on the next pay-day a member of the Capital City Club sat beside Supt. Easton and that as each employee came up to him, his pay clerk would say to him, "That is so and so," whereupon the official of the Capital City Club would call him to his side and collect the $1 assessment. This is the substance of the charges which will, it is understood, be formally preferred against the superintendent and for the levying of political assessments.

THE LAW ON THE SUBJECT. The law bearing on the subject is Chap. 357 of the laws of 1894, which reads as follows:

"No officer, agent, clerk or employee under the government of the State of New York, or any political division thereof, shall directly or indirectly use his authority or official influence to compel or induce any other officer, clerk, agent or employee under said government or any political division thereof, to pay or promise to pay any political assessment. Every said officer, agent or clerk who may have charge or control in any building, office, or room occupied for any purpose of said government or any said division thereof, is hereby authorized to prohibit the entry of any person, and he shall not consent that any person shall enter the same for the purpose of therein making, collecting, receiving, or giving notice of any political assessment; and no person shall enter or remain in any said office, building or room or send or direct any letter or other writing thereto for the purpose of giving notice of, demanding or collecting, nor shall any person therein give notice of, demand, collect or receive any such assessment; and no person shall declare or make out or take in preparing or making out any political assessment, subscription or contribution with the intent that the same shall be sent or presented to or collected of any officer, agent or employee subject to the provisions of this act, under the government of the State of New York or that of any political division thereof, and no person shall knowingly send or present any political assessment, subscription or contribution to or request its payment of any said officer or employee."

By section 12 of the same chapter it is provided that any person who shall be guilty of violating any provision of the last section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, on conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than $50 and not exceeding

$1,000 or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

MR. EASTON'S EXCUSE.

Confronted with this charge, Supt. Easton says substantially that he did not compel anyone to attend the Saratoga excursion and that therefore it is not a political assessment. One may judge for himself as to the compulsion when an employee sees such a notice posted in a place where he works by his superior, and is reminded of it by the timekeeper and the deputy.

A Republican old soldier asks me to point out the fact that last June, when a committee of veterans waited on Governor Flower and asked him to reinstate some of their number, he at once ordered it done, and that from that time on the military exemption law was never violated during his term. "Governor Flower," says this prominent Grand Army man, "was always courteous and considerate in his treatment of the veteran soldiers, when we have waited on Gov. Morton we have gotten nothing but evasive and unsatisfactory replies."

It is also a fact that a leading Grand Army man is willing to make affidavit that directly after the 15th of May when Easton was removed, Supt. Easton removed 24 out of 55 veterans on the orderly force, Superintendent Easton walked up to a prominent veteran, pulled his Grand Army badge from his button-hole and placing it derisively in his own, said: "I'm something of a warrior myself, ain't I? I've just killed 24 more soldiers than most of you ever saw."

I look back with pleasure upon the faithful way in which you have discharged your duty, not only under myself, but under Hon. Martin Schenck. Col. John F. Gaynor, State Committee-man, etc., Syracuse, N. Y.

My Dear Sir:—Permit me to congratulate you on the success of the untiring efforts of yourself and friends in securing the nomination of our mutual friend, and to assure you that no mistake was made when Russell R. Stuart was selected by the Democratic State convention as its candidate for State engineer and surveyor. Knowing him perhaps as well as any one in the State in a professional way, I beg to add a few words to the many good opinions that have been expressed of his ability as an engineer. Personally and professionally Mr. Stuart is a very able man, an engineer of decidedly practical ideas and thoroughly able to master the situation, under the most trying engineering difficulties. His long experience on the canals of our State (fourteen years or more) coupled with an excellent practical and theoretical knowledge of engineering, makes him an exceedingly valuable man for the place to which I trust and believe he will be elected at the coming election. I am of the opinion that no engineer in the State is better informed of the condition and needs of the reservoir and feeder system of our canals; the canal men and shippers have no warmer friend, and I trust that he may receive from all friends of our public works, irrespective of party affiliations, the hearty support that he so richly deserves. I am indebted to Mr. Stuart for valued assistance rendered and many practical suggestions received from him on canal maintenance and improvement during my term of office as State engineer and surveyor, and shall use every effort to aid in placing him.

Trusting that we shall succeed, I am, Very truly yours,

MARTIN SCHENCK.

J. W. Goshart, superintendent of the Valentine Iron company, and superintendent of the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania, said the other day.

"The iron trade has struck an advance to stay. The railroads replacing bridges with plate girder structural iron to withstand the weight of heavier trains and cars of larger capacity; the replacing of worn out rails; the building of new and larger cars to replace the stock that has been allowed to run down in the past two years; the building of so much electric railway, as well as the erection of so many buildings with structural iron all over the world, are some of the most important reasons why the iron industry will be kept up for an indefinite number of years, and that at good prices, too. Over 200,000 cars will be needed by the railroads in the next two years. "If all the furnaces in the country would shut down for only eight days there would not be a pound of pig iron in the country for manufacture, which is a good criterion of the small stock of iron in the country and the great demand for it."

An Unusual Accusation.

CREDIT THAT IS NOT DUE

COMPTROLLER ROBERTS AND HIS FRIENDS WILL PLEASE NOTE THE FACTS.

GOV. FLOWER THE ONLY

Who Consented and Put Into Operation, With the Aid of the Lunacy Commission, the Estimate Plan in the State Charitable Institutions—The Saving Thereby Affected.

(Special Albany Letter.)

Comptroller Roberts has recently caused to be widely circulated throughout the State a document in the interests of his campaign for re-election, in which are collated statistics and statements carefully arranged to convey the impression that until the advent of the present Comptroller the State's finances were in a very bad way, indeed. About the only new claim, that had not been answered by the Democratic press, is embodied in this paragraph:

"Chapter 554, Laws of 1894, gave the Comptroller supervision of thirteen charitable institutions of the State. The per capita expenses of maintaining the inmates of these institutions in 1893, under the old system, and in 1895, under the new system, compares as follows:

1893, per capita cost.....$236.52

1895, per capita cost.....167.99

This shows a per capita saving for 1895 of $68.53, or a total saving for the entire 5,181 inmates of State institutions, $277,866.35."

The impression sought to be conveyed by this paragraph, appearing in a Roberts' campaign document, is of course that to Comptroller Roberts is due the credit for this saving. Some indiscreet or ill-advised organs of the Comptroller have gone farther, and in direct terms claimed for him the credit for the saving thus effected.

WHAT ARE THE FACTS?

The facts are that early in 1892, before Mr. Roberts was even nominated for Comptroller, much less an incumbent of the office, Governor Roswell P. Flower decided, after a conference with the lunacy commissioners, that a great saving could be effected in the running expenses of the State charitable institutions if the estimate system were put into operation. It was simply the adoption by the State of the same orderly business ideas that had made Mr. Flower a success as a practical man of affairs in the world of business. He sent for leading Senators and Assemblymen, and through Gov. Flower's influence and insistence the estimate plan was enacted into law. That was in 1892, before Roberts had been heard of outside of Buffalo.

Under the estimate plan, the large charitable institutions are required at the beginning of each month to submit estimates to the lunacy commission of the amount of provisions, etc., they will that month require. At the end of the month, they must submit their vouchers to the lunacy commission, and the vouchers must not exceed the estimate.

THE FIRST YEAR'S SAVING.

At the end of the first year Gov. Flower and the lunacy commission had reason to congratulate themselves. Under the estimate system, $399,000 had been saved to the State, and the superintendent of hospitals, some of whom had opposed the plan at first, were obliged to admit that the service was better than it had been under the old method whose distinguishing feature was the absence of all method. Then it was that Gov. Flower sent for Comptroller Roberts and advised him to expand to the 13 minor charitable institutions which report to the Comptroller the system which had proved so successful as applied to the larger charitable institutions on a year's trial. Comptroller Roberts could hardly fail to see the wisdom of adopting a course already proved to be a great success, and adopt it he did. Originally he did not. He simply had some necessary blanks printed and followed out Gov. Flower's business-like suggestions. The saving of $137,000 is due to the suggestion and the proved expediency of a plan already in successful operation and devised by Gov. Flower.

AND TILDEN, TOO.

It may interest Comptroller Roberts and his enthusiastic partisans to learn also, that another level-headed Democratic business Governor, Samuel J. Tilden, had also tried the estimate system. He applied it to the department of State prisons, and the first year's savings was nearly half a million of dollars to the taxpayers.

It thus appears that the principal achievement of the present Comptroller in finance is due to the adoption of Democratic business ideas. The next Comptroller John B. Judson of Fulton, will adopt a great many more such ideas, and the taxpayers will be correspondingly benefited.

MR. STUART'S REPLY.

He is in Favor of Enforcing the Civil Service Law.

Russell R. Stuart, the Democratic candidate for State engineer and surveyor, has written the following letter in reply to the inquiries of the Civil Service Reform association:

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 19, 1895.

Civil Service Reform association, New York City.

Gentlemen:—Your valued favor of recent date has remained unanswered until now owing to my absence from the city. In reply to your inquiries, would say that I am in favor of the enforcement of the civil service laws of the State.

Respectfully yours,
RUSSELL R. STUART.

Harmony in Oswego.

In Oswego, where Democratic differences have existed for many years of a most annoying nature, and where two Democratic candidates for mayor had been put in nomination, complete harmony has been effected. Democrats throughout the State will be gratified to learn that both the opposing Democratic candidates for mayor have withdrawn, and that one compromise non-factional candidate has been selected and will be elected.

Seeing is sometimes disbelieving.

We hear of several cases in which Democrats have been offered money if they will not vote, to-morrow. This is just as much bribery as if they had been offered money for voting the Republican ticket. The Democratic committee is investigating the matter and it is not unlikely that complaints will be made against the eminently respectable Republicans who are engaged in this dirty business of corrupting the ballot.

The Republican committee in New York city has received $20,130 from the Committee of Fifty and demanded $53,080 more. The Fifty handed over $6,000 and said that was the size of their pile and then there was trouble, for the disappointed Republicans threatened to let the fusion ticket take care of itself. Mr. Platt gave the Fifty a raking over and an effort is to be made to-day by the Fifty to scrape together enough money to give the "boys" $25 for an election district.

If for any reason you wish to vote for one of the Republican candidates for Supreme Court Judge bear in mind that you must not only place a cross (X) in the circle under the Democratic star, but also a cross before the Republican candidate of your choice and a cross before each of the Democratic candidates for Judge for whom you desire to vote. The candidate in the Democratic column before whose name no cross appears is thus "scratched" in favor of the Republican candidate. There is so much machinery about this that it's not worth while to take the chances of losing your vote by making a mistake. There is no reason why Democrats should vote for a Republican candidate for Judge. Vote the straight ticket by putting a cross (X) in the circle under the star.

Whatever may be the result of the election in this country, too much credit cannot be given Mr. Samuel D. Roberson, Chairman of the Democratic County Committee, for the careful, intelligent and painstaking manner in which he has conducted the canvass. He has given it his personal attention for several weeks, and the amount of real hard work that has been done under his direction would scarcely be believed by those unfamiliar with modern methods of campaigning. He has had in his work the willing assistance and faithful co-operation of his associates on the County Committee, and no matter whether victory or defeat is in store for the Democracy, to-morrow, the fact remains that Mr. Roberson has done all that a county chairman could do to win the day for the Democratic party.

All citizens who wish the important office of Surrogate filled by a man of high personal and professional character, who has never been accused of a shady transaction and who is above trickery, will vote for William H. Crane, the Democratic candidate.

Taxpayers will find the 3.21 tax rate a very heavy burden. If they like heavy taxes let them vote to keep the Republicans in power. If they want low taxes and better government for their money they will vote for Democratic candidates.

The Democratic county ticket is many hundred votes stronger than when it was nominated. It has grown in popular favor because of the ability, fitness and high character of the candidates, while the Republican candidates, as the facts concerning them became known, have steadily lost ground.

'LEXOW' ONLY A SMALL PIPE

From the New York Tribune, April 2nd
Lexow is only a small pipe through which the breathings of Platt creek and whistling now low, now low, attesting the varying pneumatic condition of the former, and the wooden insensibility of the pipe. He says he don't care a tinker's damn for all the mass meetings which New York can assemble, and he probably does not, nor do these gatherings of the people they represent care anything in particular about him. It is the master they are after, the man, like zero in the arithmetic, amounting to nothing without a controlling figure behind him. Strike off his preceding unit and you have nothing; that is—Lexow an empty symbol with not enough substance to rattle when it is pounded on, nor echo back the kicks which his legislative conduct invites and deserves.

POINTERS

CARLETON NIGHT

First, go immediately and secure your seat. You will find it waiting for you at Dusenberry's jewelry store. It will cost you fifty cents whether you sit in an orchestra chair or in the last row of the top gallery. It all depends on your buying in season.

Second, take your wife, your sister, your cousin, or your sweetheart. They will always think the more of you for having done so.

Third, take the children. "Can they understand it?" Well, you see if they don't catch every point, laugh and cry just as much as you do, and remind you of the good time they had, every now and then for years to come. See if it doesn't start some of them off on a literary or oratorical career.

Fourth, get there at least by 8 o'clock; you can't afford to miss any of it. Of course, you need not come at 7 o'clock, or even half past, and if you come at a quarter of 10, you'll get your seat, if you have it bought, but you want the whole entertainment.

Fifth, look through the Will Carleton books on your tables and in your libraries and be "up" on some of the wonderful poems he is to read in connection with the new unpublished ones. You will enjoy him all the better.

"Carleton night" is Friday evening, Nov. 8th; the place is the Casino. Seats in all parts of the house are fifty cents.

THEIR WEEK IN MIDDLETOWN FULL OF ALL SORTS OF EXPERIENCES—MANAGER ELLINWOOD UNDER ARREST YESTERDAY CHARGED WITH STEALING MR. FERGUSON'S TRUNK—GIVES UP THE PROPERTY AND IS RELEASED.

Thomas Ellinwood and his aggregation of ten-cent Theatians have departed from Middletown after a week's most vicissitudinous experiences. The company had a bad start when it arrived here, last Monday, and found that its advance agent had precipitated a row with the Casino management over advertising.

Then followed the disgraceful incident behind the scenes, when a brutal husband "licked" his wife because she had the temerity to demand money which rightfully belonged to her and her child. This was followed by Manager Corey closing the theatre on Wednesday night, only to re-open it upon Mr. Ellinwood's pleadings and the fake statement that he had "bounced" the brutal offender. Then the elements took a hand in the squabble, and rain kept the public home Thursday night and Saturday afternoon and evening.

Ferguson out of the way, and Mrs. Ferguson determined to leave the company and take away its principal attraction, "Baby Blossom," led Mr. Ellinwood to take a course which landed him a prisoner in the hands of the police, yesterday morning. He got out of the scrape by returning the property which Mrs. Ferguson claims he was trying to confiscate. Saturday afternoon Mrs. Ferguson received a telegram from her recreant spouse instructing her to forward his trunk to Port Jervis, as he expected to be there a few days. The lady secured the trunk and had it carted to the Erie baggage room where it was left in charge of Baggage-master Geo. Ellison. The latter went off duty at 7 o'clock and left no instructions to night Baggage-master Purdy, so when Mr. Ellinwood called for the trunk it was delivered to him without question. The trunk was secreted in a hotel shed until yesterday morning, when it was taken in an express wagon to Goshen.

After the performance, Saturday night, Mrs. Ferguson learned that the trunk had disappeared from the baggage room, and she went to Recorder Bradner's house to secure a warrant for Ellinwood's arrest on a charge of larceny, but the Recorder would not grant a warrant that night and told her to come to police court, Sunday morning. Upon her statement a warrant was issued and Ellinwood was arrested. He at first refused to give up the trunk upon the ground that the woman had no claim to it, and that he owned some of the contents. The Recorder insisted, however, and said that unless the trunk was produced at once, he would hold Ellinwood in default of $150 bail for the value of the contents of the trunk. Telephonic communication was then opened between police court and Goshen, where Mr. Ellinwood's lieutenant had gone with the trunk. The result was that the trunk was returned to the baggage room of the Erie as soon as the truckman could get back from Goshen and Ellinwood was discharged from custody.

Mrs. Ferguson and her child then left the company. She claims that Ellinwood owes her $110 and the child $57. She purchased a ticket for Chicago and checked the trunk to that place. The balance of the company left on the Orange County Express, this morning, for Walden, where they will inflict their "histrionic abilities" upon the citizens of that village for the ensuing week.

REPUBLICAN PLAN OF CAMPAIGN.

Bribing Democrats to Remain Away from the Polls—Two Dollars the Price offered.

The scheme of the Republican managers to hire Democrats to remain away from the polls, is so thoroughly understood that any Democrat whose name appears on the registry list, who does not vote, will, unless he has the very best of an excuse, be subjected to the suspicion of having received Republican boodle, and no self-respecting Democrat can afford to rest under such suspicion.

Just how many agents the Republican managers have in this city we do not know, but we do know some of them, and they will have to manage the business very slick indeed, if they escape the punishment they so richly deserve.

Merely to show that we know whereof we speak, we will state that a man doing business on James street is one of the agents for the distribution of Republican boodle. His price to every Democrat who can be induced to stay away from the polls, to-morrow, is two dollars. He seems to be a kind of general agent, who is willing to pay Democrats two dollars a head for every Democrat they can influence to remain away from the polls, payment to be made after examination of the poll list shows that the names handed in by the sub-contractor do not appear thereon.

The James street agent may as well understand at once that Democrats are "onto him," and he is liable to get into serious trouble. So is another agent whom we will not now designate, but who is equally well known.

SEEKING TO BE FREED FROM HYMEN'S BANDS—A SURPRISE FOR WILLIAM H. BEAKES.

Two divorce cases were tried before Judge Brown at a special term of the Supreme Court in Newburgh, Saturday. All the parties reside near this city.

The first case was that of Mary E. T. Bogardus, who asked for a divorce from her husband, George W. Bogardus, on statutory grounds. Judge Brown stated that the evidence given, Saturday, did not satisfy him that a divorce should be granted, but took the papers in the case and will consider them before rendering a decision.

The second case was that of Wm. H. Beakes, who sued for a divorce from his wife, Jennie M. Beakes. The result of this action was a surprise to everybody in the court room most of all to the plaintiff himself.

Mrs. Beakes made a counter charge of unfaithfulness against her husband and backed it up with such strong evidence that Judge Brown issued a decree in her favor. Dill & Cox were Mrs. Beakes's attorneys.

THE W. T. WALLACE FAILURE.

Creates Much Excitement at Pine Bush—Charges of Wrong Doing Against the Bankrupt Merchant—Heavy Liabilities and Very Small Assets.

The failure of William T. Wallace is the biggest sensation Pine Bush has known in many a day. As the facts become known, and new names are added to the long list of those who suffer through the collapse, a feeling of deep resentment is aroused against Mr. Wallace. He left Pine Bush, Friday, and has not yet returned being apparently unwilling to face the crowds of angry creditors. Much of his indebtedness is for money borrowed from people in and about Pine Bush.

It is openly asserted at Pine Bush that in many instances parties who had given notes to Mr. Wallace gave him the money with which to pay them, but the money was not used to take up the notes and they still stand as an obligation of their makers. Other and more serious charges are also made against Mr. Wallace.

Mr. W. B. Royce, the assignee, has completed the schedule of assets and liabilities. The footings are as follows:

LIABILITIES.
Personal unsecured debts	$19,700 54
Mortgages on real estate	4,600 00
Contingent liability as endorser of paper taken in course of business and discounted	20,000 00
Total	$44,300 54

ASSETS.
Valuation of real estate	$ 6,000 00
Book accounts	2,109 27
Merchandise	4,694 55
Total	$12,803 82

The assignor, Mr. Wallace, estimates that the $20,000 00 above mentioned will all be made good by the makers of the notes with the possible exception of $1,000.

EXPLOSION AT THE GAS WORKS.

A Fire that Did but Little Damage—Two Gas House Employees Slung.

Shortly after 8 o'clock, this morning, a leaky pipe in the gas works, on Canal street, caused an explosion, followed by a slight fire, which, however, was extinguished before any considerable damage was done. Engineers Major L. Masten and Harry L. Adams were in the engine room at the time of the explosion, and the flames singed the hair from the back of their heads and hands. The building is an iron structure and there is very little wood work about it.

The fire department was called from box 37, but its services were not required.

THE EAST MAIN STREET PAVING

Work Again Delayed Because of Lack of Brick.

The East Main street pavement was not completed to the Erie tracks as was anticipated Saturday. The reason was lack of brick, the Oatskill people having again failed to keep their promise to rush the brick through. No brick was received, this morning, and the pavers took a day off. A stretch of about twenty feet yet remains to be laid near the Erie tracks.

DR. J. L. WORTMAN, PALEONTOLOGIST, AND JOHN SWINTON, ROMANTICIST.

How the Discoverer of the Latest "Missing Link" and the Social Reformer Once Discussed the Romance of Science and the Romance of the Emotions.

Dr. J. L. Wortman, paleontologist, who has made such a notable discovery in Wyoming as to seem to warrant him in claiming to have found the bones of the true "missing link" in the chain of evolution from the monkey to the man, is below middle age. That he has succeeded in winning an exceptionally high place in the ranks of scientific discoverers while yet comparatively young is matter for sincere congratulations from his friends.

It may be set down as a fact, however, that the news of Dr. Wortman's success this year does not come to his friends as a surprise. To them he has often repeated the statement that in his opinion the part of Wyoming near the headwaters of Bitter creek, where the priceless find was made, contains the richest and oldest accessible deposits of fossils that have yet been discovered anywhere.

Originally the bed of a fresh water lake, it was filled in through almost countless ages by sediment brought in by streams tributary thereto. In this sediment the bones of animals that were mired or drowned were frequently preserved almost and sometimes quite intact, only to be revealed to the inquiring eye of the investigating scientist, ages after their interment, by the washing away of the silt. When it is explained that layers of preserved remains almost a mile thick are now exposed to sight in the bed of this old lake, the cause for Dr. Wortman's enthusiastic researches there can be readily understood. Concerning the nature of the current discovery so much has appeared in the dispatches and elsewhere that it is necessary here to say nothing further save that the bones are undoubtedly those of a monkey, and that the indications are that in life it was at a stage of evolution which would practically confirm the truth of the so-called Darwinian theory. Scientists will look for Dr. Wortman's detailed and technical account of this discovery and what it means with great impatience, and it is to be hoped that the doctor can be induced also to give to the world a popular version thereof.

Unlike most profoundly scientific men, this discoverer is peculiarly happy in catching the most difficult scientific truths in words that may be understood by every one. So thorough are both his scientific knowledge and his mastery of clear, simple and strong English that he is able to impart all the charm of romance to what told by the pen or the tongue of many another would be but the driest of recital. Dr. Wortman believes in the romance of science, believes it to be far more interesting than the romance of sentiment, and with delight every opportunity that presents itself for putting the stories of investigation against those of the emotions. Perhaps he has never appeared to better advantage than he did one evening last spring at a dinner given by the "Sign of the Lantern," a New York club of which the professor is a popular member, to John Swinton, journalist, romanticist and social reformer. It should be said, to the credit of Mr. Swinton, however, that he held his own well.

It was contended by Mr. Swinton that in these utilitarian, scientific days there is little or no romance; that while, as to mere comfort, mankind may be better off than formerly, he is no longer picturesque or personally independent in a degree even faintly approaching the picturesque independence of the past, and that the tendency of present conditions cannot fail to be in the direction of great and lasting deterioration of the race. Mr. Swinton did not pour forth these views in any such commonplace and conventional phrases as those which I have before employed. He clothed his ideas in the crystalline forms of nervous and idiomatic English, of which he is so great a master, and when he sat down it seemed that no one would or could disagree with him.

But this notion was a mistaken one. Scarcely had the speaker seated himself when Dr. Wortman arose and began a plea for the recognition of the romance of science and the value of scientific research. Possibly his words may not have been so gracefully arranged as Mr. Swinton's, but they were vigorous, enthusiastic and compelling. In support of what he had to say the doctor told of the discoveries that had been made by himself and others in the very locality where the bones of the so-called "missing link" were taken last summer. His stories were not recited in the spirit of one who would glorify himself, but were chosen from his own experience, obviously because he knew them better than any others. He told of the proofs of the evolution of the horse from a three foot creature the size of a shepherd dog that have been found there and generally accepted by scientists, and of many other discoveries almost as great, and he held his listeners spellbound.

HEART DISEASE, like many other ailments when they have taken hold of the system, never gets better of its own accord, but Constantly grows worse. There are thousands who know they have a defective heart, but will not admit the fact. They don't want their friends to worry, and Don't know what to take for it, as they have been told time and again that heart disease was incurable. Such was the case of Mr. Silas Farley of Dyesville, Ohio who writes June 23, 1894, as follows:

"I had heart disease for 23 years, my heart hurting me almost continually. The first 15 years I doctored all the time, trying several physicians and remedies, until my last doctor told me it was only a question of time as I could not be cured. I gradually grew worse, very weak, and completely discouraged, until I lived, propped up in bed, because I couldn't lie down nor sit up. Thinking my time had come I told my family what I wanted done when I was gone. But on the first day of March on the recommendation of Mrs. Fannie Jones, of Anderson, Ind., I commenced taking Dr. Miles' Heart Cure for the Heart and wonderful to tell, in ten days I was working at light work and on March 15 commenced framing a barn, which is heavy work, and I have not a day since. I am 55 years old, 5 ft. 7 1/2 inches and weigh 300 lbs. I believe I am fully cured, and I am now only anxious that everyone shall know of your wonderful remedies."

A CORONET FOR SALE.

Silver King Newlands of Nevada May Buy a Dukedom in Italy.

There has been a number of slightly shopworn dukedoms on the world's bargain counter of late, and an American bid of about $10,000,000 has resulted in the quick sale of one of them. Another which is offered on the installment plan at the low figure of $1,000,000 has proved a slow seller and is still on the counter, but it is said that Francis G. Newlands, the millionaire congressman at large of Nevada, is seriously thinking of becoming a purchaser. This dukedom carries with it a large estate in middle Italy, near the holdings of the Duke of Tuscany, and the present duke has become so weary of wearing his coronet that he is perfectly willing to exchange it for a plain American straw hat providing said hat has a cool million of dollars tucked away inside the band. The dukedom is offered for sale on the bargain counter of Andrew Sharbano and General W. H. L. Barnes of San Francisco, and it is said that Newlands is going to Italy to look the goods over before he makes his decision.

If Newlands becomes a duke, Nevada will probably lose the only congressman she possesses. He is native of Natchez, Miss., and was born Aug. 28, 1848. He entered the class of '67 at Yale and remained in the university until the middle of his junior year. Strongly attracted toward the law, Newlands removed to Washington, where he attended the Columbian College Law school and was admitted to the bar of the supreme court of the District of Columbia. He then began the practice of his profession in San Francisco and was soon one of the prominent legal luminaries of the city.

In 1880 he became a trustee of the estate of William Sharon, formerly United States senator from Nevada, and two years later removed to Nevada, where he actively engaged in the silver agitation and was for years vice chairman of the national silver committee. In 1892 he was elected to congress by the silver party. He is closely affiliated with Senator Stewart of Nevada in business as well as politics and owns a great deal of railroad and mining stock and real estate.

His Opinion.

A German sportsman once said to a well known Scotch baronet: "Talking about dogs with keen scent, I have one in Germany that will compare favorably with any you have in England." "Very remarkable dog, I suppose?" "I should say so. The day after I left home he broke his chain, and although I had been away for hours, he tracked me and found me merely by scent. What do you think of that?" "I think you ought to take a bath," replied the Scotchman, turning calmly away—Argonaut.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

A Modern Menace.

Mabel Waited, and Her Patience Was at Last Rewarded.

"Once more and for the last time, Mabel

Hickups, I ask you to marry me."

"Once more and for the last time, James

Gaddeblack, I answer no!"

"Remember, I hold the mortgage on the old farm."

"Remember."

"This day week, then, I shall foreclose."

"You and your poor old mother, who sits weeping yonder, will be turned out of doors, homeless and homeless, wandering on the face and hands of the earth. Oh, think of your mother, Mabel!"

"Oh, have some pity, sister!" wailed the poor, broken widow.

"Pity, mother," said the brave girl, who intended no allusion thereby to the fact that her mother was a broken, "pity!"

Then turning to her tormentor, she exclaimed: "False one! Stick not thus to play upon my sympathies. No, I am pledged to marry William Dubs, and I will keep my word."

"Yes, and where is William Dubs now? Why does he not come to your aid? Where is he, I say?"

"For the first time Mabel hung her head and murmured low, 'In Brooklyn.'"

"In Brooklyn, eh? Hal hal hal!"

With quivering indignation Mabel shook out a reef and straightened to her full height. With one long, sweeping gesture, which Bernhardt might have envied, she pointed to the door.

"Leave! Leave this house! Our house!"

"Your house?" he sneered.

"Yes, our house, for it is ours till next week. Till then under this roof you have no right to breathe into my ear your vile insinuations. Go! Breathe them into your own ear if you will, but not into mine. No—not into mine!"

"Calm yourself, my daughter!" said her weeping mother. "All may yet be well."

"Alas, how often does the jaded man strive to escort the other fellow home."

Mabel gave one last wild smile and cried: "It is not fear for myself that unwelcome me, but fear for William. For three long months I have not had the scratch of a pen from him. And yet—and yet—"

"And yet what?"

Rising from her chair and smiling through her tears, the brave girl exclaimed: "Something tells me that William will yet come to the rescue. Good old Bill!"

The week passed.

Each day Mabel watched for the postman, but each day the gray clad messenger took his head and answered "No!"

"No?" said Mabel, "tomorrow will bring a letter," she declared, hoping against hope.

Through the long day she bore up bravely, but at night, when there was no eye to see, she wept until her pillow was as wet as soap.

The morning of the foreclosed came.

No word from William.

It was 10 o'clock, and the friends and neighbors of the Hickups from far and near were waiting to witness the sale.

To Mabel's surprise, with these of the widow and her daughter, and some to triumph over their downfall, for the Hickups had always held up their heads, unlike the other villagers who juked them forward, like beggars.

James Gaddeblack strolled up with a smile on his handsome, oval face, and, calling a loose lot of his Subro Mort, cigar, whistler to his side, he said: "It is not too late, yet, my proud beauty. Say but the little word 'Yes' and this mortgage shall be canceled in the smoke of a lamb's tail."

But she made out that she didn't hear him.

Suddenly there was a commotion in the gloom of the crowd, skirts having sound of footstep. "Way there! Gangway!"

A man hurrying and battered with the rain of a Yale Pinnet in forehead and a fogged into the open space.

"It is William!" squealed Mabel and long her arms to him.

"Quick!" he groined. "Go a little easy!"

It was Mabel's William, damaged, it is true, but still William.

The first of his forehead on the forehead and the first of his forehead on the forehead.

"How much is this mortgage?"

"Sixty dollars and twenty-two cents," returned the man, looking haughtily. "More money than you are worth."

"I'll be damned!" roared Mabel and long her arms to him.

"Quick!" he groined. "Go a little easy!"

WATER COMMISSIONERS.

MUCH BUSINESS DONE AT SATURDAY NIGHT'S REGULAR MEETING.

Clerk's Report of Receipts and Disbursements—Delinquent Consumers Must Pay Up—A New Main to Be Laid Under the Erie Tracks at James Street—Condition of the Reservoirs—Contract with the Houston Estate—Extensions of Mains Ordered Bills Audited.

The regular meeting of the Board of Water Commissioners was held Saturday evening, all the members being present except Mr. Stratton. Superintendent Van Duzer was also present.

The clerk reported receipts for October of $1,522.06; balance Oct. 1st, 1895, $816.57; total $2,338.63, of which $1,413.16 was for water rents, $46 for taps, $52.80 for sales, and $11 for building purposes. Disbursements: construction, $578.99; expenses, $205.20; interest, $1,312.50; repairs, $25.63; salaries, $204.16; pump house, $305.74; sales, $58.05; water rents, $2,166.21; total disbursements, $2,692.43. Cash on hand, $86.64; overdraft, $352.90.

Receipts for November: water rents, $348.55; taps, $2; sales, $2.40; total, $352.95. Disbursements: salaries, $204.16; cash on hand, $93.85; overdraft, November 2d, $203.81.

DELINQUENTS MUST PAY UP.

The clerk read a list of delinquent consumers, and on motion the Board resolved that the clerk notify each of the delinquents that the amount due from them must be paid at once.

It is the intention of the Commissioners to keep the accounts collected up as close as possible, and in order to do this those who do not pay the amounts due from them, when due, must expect to be deprived of the use of water.

In the matter of the Low estate claim for back rents it was resolved that the clerk be instructed to have the same adjusted on or before Nov. 11th, 1895.

On motion the Board resolved that until the public sprinkler pays the amount now due from him that no further contract be made with him to supply city water.

George Durrance was granted a one-half tap for supplying his laundry.

NEW MAIN UNDER ERIE TRACKS

The Erie company having refused to let the Commissioners repair the pipes under their tracks near the James street crossing, the Board resolved to put in a 12-inch main on James street from the corner of Depot street to Union street, and from where the connection is made with such 12 inch main on Union street, to connect with main coming down Franklin street, and also to lay a new pipe in Depot street from Franklin street to James street. This will do away with the main crossing under the Erie tracks, east of the baggage room.

Complaint was made to the Board in regard to the closet in the Erie depot, and the same was referred to the Superintendent.

CONDITION OF THE RESERVOIRS.

The Superintendent reported as follows in regard to the reservoirs: Monahan Lake—Depth Nov. 2nd, fifteen feet three inches; contains 113,780,000 gallons; Oct. 5th, stood fifteen feet, contained 109,367,000 gallons, a gain of 4,422,000 gallons.

Highland Lake—Depth Nov. 2nd, seven feet nine inches, contains 137,212,000 gallons; Oct. 5th, stood eight feet five inches, contained 109,053,000 gallons, a loss 22,841,000 gallons.

Highland Lake lost 22,841,000 gallons, Monahan Lake gained 4,422,000 gallons. Loss in the month, 18,419,000 gallons.

The President was authorized to sign the contract with the Houston estate for the privilege of pumping from the brook at the pumping station for one year, at $300.

A claim of the Houston estate for water taken prior to October, 1894, of $300, was presented and referred to Messrs. Rogers and Douglas to investigate and report.

LAST MAIN STREET MAIN EXTENSION.

Clerk read a petition from a number of property owners owning property on East Main street and lots adjoining on the Gardiner tract asking for an extension of the main on East Main street for about 300 feet.

Superintendent stated that if this work was done it should in his opinion be laid with eight inch cast iron.

On motion the Board resolved to grant the petition and directed the superintendent to lay the same, provided that the pipe and materials can be bought and delivered before the ground freezes, and provided further that in case it should freeze up before the work is completed, then the superintendent was directed to do only that portion of such work as may be done before the frost gets in the ground.

The superintendent was directed to lay a main of 150 feet or thereabouts on Olive street to take the place of a pipe which had been uncovered in working on that street. This pipe was laid some years ago by private parties and there are a number of consumers who take water direct from this private main. This work is to be done in advance of that on East Main street.

The Superintendent was directed to order the necessary pipe and specials for the East Main street and Olive street work.

Superintendent was directed to shut off at the curb, the water at St. Joseph's School on Cottage street, until the proper sewer and water connections are made.

Bills to the amount of $1,218.51 were audited.

—The comic opera "Wang" was DeWolf Hopper's greatest success. At the Casino, this evening.

THE ROAD TO WARWICK.

A Monticello Couple Who Had Hard Work to Get Out of Middletown.

From the Monticello Republican.

A few weeks ago, a Monticello couple started to drive overland to Warwick via Middletown. At that place they made inquiries in regard to the right road and were directed to turn to the left, then to the right, again to the left and keep straight ahead. They followed the directions, and after traveling some time found themselves in Middletown again. After obtaining further instructions as to the right road they set out the second time on their winding way, but with the same result, only somewhat intensified, as they came back to the very place where the last information had been imparted. They now wondered whether there could be any known way out of town after once getting into it. Finally they mustered up courage to make further inquiries and were appalled to hear the old directions, turn to left, right, left. This time the man "took the bit in his mouth," turned the other way, and quickly found himself on the right road to Warwick, eventually reaching that pretty village "right side up with care."

The experience, which is vouched for by the "party of the first part," is somewhat comical if provoking in the first instance, reminding one of the Indiana farmer's fence, which was so crooked that no matter how often a person got over it he found himself in the same lot every time.

All Had Engagements for Friday Night.

"Come over and see me, next Friday evening, can't you?" asked a lady of another, yesterday. "I expect a few friends in whom I have invited." "Who?" asked the other lady, opening her eyes wide with astonishment. "Way, the N's." "They won't come," said lady No. 2. "Well, there's the E's, the G's the L's." "They're all going to the Carleton entertainment," said lady No. 2, "and so are husband and I. I didn't suppose anything else was going on that night." "I guess there isn't," said lady No. 1. "I'll postpone my show, and go and get tickets."

Postponed Halloween Social.

The Halloween social, which was to have been held on Oct. 31st, at Mrs. Nat. Woodhull's, Blooming Grove, will be held on Thursday evening, Nov. 7th, at the same place. All are cordially invited.

—"Wang" is the largest attraction ever attempted on the Casino stage. Alderman Siasabough's men will prepare the stage for the production which will be given with all the original scenery.

An Unknown Man Drowned.

An unknown man, about thirty-six years old, short in stature, dark mustache, wearing a short black coat, black derby hat and light trousers, fell off Ramsdell's wharf into the river at Newburgh, Friday night, and was drowned.

—The most famous does not come this way every week. He is on his way here now and will arrive Friday evening, Nov. 8th. That is Carleton night.

"I am cured since taking Hood's Sarsaparilla," is what many thousands are saying. It gives renewed vitality and vigor.

THE ERA OF DOUBT AND DISTRUST

The New-Fangled Ballot and the Reasons for Its Existence—The Day of Bell Punches and Cash Registers.

The new-fangled ballot will cause not a few self-respecting, sensitive, elderly men, affiliated with both parties, to absent themselves from the polls, to-morrow,—apprehensive that they may make themselves ridiculous in their effort to conform to the requirements which the law imposes. What a pity it is that any such innovation upon the old-fashioned ballot should have been deemed to be called for!

Conditions have most sadly changed from ante-bellum times to these later days. Then there was neither vote buying nor wrongful counting of ballots. But after all, this is not the only change which serves to show we are living in times when mutual trust, when confidence in and between men are not what they used to be.

In the decades before the war there were no "bell punches," no "cash drawers,"—with tingling bells,—no automatic registers, no detectives on store floors, but, instead, faith in honor and common manhood.

Nevertheless, here we are; and the question, and a most serious question it is too, is what is finally to become of us if we are to go on doubting and distrusting each other in all the manifold relations of life? Is my neighbor a thief that I must have a spy upon his track?—that I must, as measure of necessary precaution, put him under bonds before I have dealings with him?

—Stage Manager Frank Smith of the Casino will remove the entire scenery from the stage of the theatre this evening, ready for the scenery of the "Wang" company.

A Dividend to Creditors.

A dividend of sixty per cent. was declared, Saturday, and ordered paid to the creditors of the defunct Port Jervis shoe factory. It is thought possible that the entire indebtedness may be paid.

—See the pointers on Carleton night in another column. They are not only worth reading, but worth needing. A due following of them will make you lazier when the evening of the eighth arrives.

—Theatre-goers who have had a surfeit of cheap shows during the past week will have an opportunity to enjoy something fine, this evening. "Wang" is indeed a superb production.

(SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.)

Seated at her desk in the bureau of correspondence, this wonderful woman opens her letters from all parts of the world. A few extracts from their contents tell the story:—

FROM IOWA. "I am in a very bad condition. My course has stopped from catching cold, and the pain is fearful. I am all bloated up, and the pain in lower part of my body is terrible. My back and head ache all the time. What shall I do for it?" Miss Des Moines.

FROM NEW JERSEY. Mrs. Lizzie DeGline, 224 Grand Street, Jersey City, relates her miseries resulting from womb trouble, from which she was relieved and cured by the timely use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She ends her letter by saying, "I owe all to you."

FROM OHIO. Mrs. Newton Cobb, of Manchester, N. H., writes: "I used bottles of your Vegetable Compound, and I am happy to say it has cured me of painful menstruation and backache. My suffering every month was dreadful. The doctors gave me morphine to ease the pain; nothing to cure me. Oh, I want to tell every one what cured me! I wish every suffering woman would write and get your advice."

FROM ILLINOIS. Miss Jennie —, Chicago, states that she is twenty-two years of age, occupation, saleswoman in large dry goods store. Constant standing has brought on womb trouble, the symptoms of which she describes fully. She says: "Help me if you can. There are several girls I know who have written to Mrs. Pinkham and been cured by her advice and medicine."

FROM PENNSYLVANIA. Miss Mary Smylie, who resides at 207 E. Susquehanna Avenue, Kensington, Phila., writes: "I am a working girl, and must stand eleven hours every day. I have suffered terribly from painful menstruation and backache. At times my head was so dizzy I could hardly see. A friend recommended your Vegetable Compound. I am a different girl now; no more aches and pains. Oh, thank you, thank you!"

The above extracts from many hundreds of letters received daily by Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., go to show how easily ailing women can obtain advice and relief. Write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lydia E. THE ONLY ONE!

We are the only clothiers in Orange county making their own ready-made clothing. Therefore you can buy direct from "first hands" and save the middleman's profit, which every clothier must pay to the manufacturer from whom he buys his clothing. That is not the only advantage you have in buying of us, you see the quality in the piece, you can have swatches of same goods at any time, and we give you better made and better fitting clothing at less money. Buy home made clothing and save the middleman's profit. Men's Ulsters $5 and up.
